

Increased Salary for Sheriff Recommended By State Commission

Young Republicans Honor Philip Elting At Banquet

Would Have Prisoners Work at Gardening During Summer—Suggest All Inmates Except Prisoners—Modernization Plans.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—An increase in the salary of the sheriff to warrant a discontinuance of the fee system of providing meals for prisoners and acquisition of "some and suitable for gardening" to keep prisoners occupied are recommended by the state commission of correction today in a report of the Utter county jail at Kingston.

The sheriff receives an inadequate salary as compared to other elective county officers, the report said, and as a result he is expected to augment his pay by the use of the fee system of feeding prisoners.

The commission also recommended exclusion from the jail of all classes of inmates that do not belong in custody of the sheriff, such as lodgers, police prisoners and children.

Installation of visiting booths, receiving room, sterilizer and clothes room, together with several other building improvements, are also recommended.

The report in full follows:

Inspected January 12, 1934. John H. Saxe, sheriff.

The staff consists of an under sheriff, two day and two night jailers, a matron and cook. Under present management at least two officers are said to be actively on duty at all times. The wife of one of the jailers who resides at the court house is matron and is said to be the custodian of the women's department, which is in a building separate from the main jail.

The population at the time of inspection was 22 classified as follows:

	Adults	Minors
Male	1	1
Female	1	1
Waiting trial	6	1

The highest population last year was 55 males and 4 females, but it was reported that the number in custody this winter has been unusually low for the season. No trouble was being experienced in maintaining a legal classification.

This was one of the first modern jails built in this state, 22 years ago. It is a substantial structure, with concrete floors which have not deteriorated, and at one end of the cell block considerable room is available for expansion when needed. By constructing floors between the two tiers, on the second floor, installing additional cells in the vacant space, and replacing the niche toilets with modern ones, this jail would become practically the same as jails built in recent years.

Last fall, nearly all the interior of the plant was repainted with light gloss paint and at the time of inspection it was in excellent condition throughout.

The equipment and details as to management were fully described in the last report of inspection and continue the same. A section of grating was installed in front of the window on the gallery floor as recommended.

Safety Improved

Much has been accomplished to improve the safety of the jail since the escapes two years ago. The institution is under constant supervision and it was stated that during the night all cells, doors and gates are closed and locked. Under present rules an officer does not enter the jail with the keys in his possession, but is let in by another who retains the keys on the other side of the barred gate.

The use of quarters in the basement by the city of Kingston, for the care of police prisoners and lodgers, continues. It has been the subject of criticism by this commission for many years past, the contention of the commission being that lodgers should be in charge of the local welfare department, and arrested persons who have not been to court should be cared for by the police department. The space is used as a receiving and clean-up room for prisoners regularly committed, and a sterilizer and place for the storage of prisoners' clothing should be installed. The running of a police lockup and lodging house does not rightfully belong to the sheriff's department.

The sheriff receives an inadequate salary as compared with the other elective officers of the county. As a result, he is expected to augment his pay by the use of the fee system of feeding prisoners. This condition has existed in Utter county for many years and the commission has continually urged that the sheriff should receive sufficient salary to warrant a discontinuance of the fee system of providing meals for prisoners. Of course the change should become operative at the beginning of a sheriff's term. The report of inspection dated February 22, 1933, discussed this matter in detail. It is only fair to state in this connection that the inmates are as well fed now as at any time in the past; three meals a day are provided and the menu seemed satisfactory. The meals are prepared and served by a paid cook assisted by trusty prisoners. When new plates and cups are needed, also kitchen equipment, it would be an improvement to purchase aluminum ware, which should be ordered from the State Department of Correction.

Aside from employment of a trusty nature about the buildings, the Stuyvesant Hotel Scene of Banquet Honoring Utter County Republican Leader and Members of County Executive Committee—Mr. Elting, Justice Roger Loughran, Assemblyman Conway, Mayor Heiselman Were Speakers—Miss Ann O'Meara Arranged Affair—Andrew Ferguson Was Toastmaster.

A decidedly worth while affair, the Republican bark in Utter county with a fine chicken dinner and some excellent speaking, was the first annual banquet of the Young Republican Club of Kingston, held at the Stuyvesant Hotel Thursday evening.

Andrew Ferguson, one of the prominent young Republicans of the city and president of the club, presided during the evening and introduced the speakers. He, as well as others who spoke, gave especial credit to Miss Ann O'Meara, chairman of the social committee of the club, for the interest she had taken in this first annual gathering and for the success of her arrangements.

The dinner was in honor of Philip Elting, chairman of the Utter County Republican Central Committee, and other members of the executive committee of the county organization. In addition to Mr. Elting, prominent Republicans present included Assemblyman J. Edward Conway, County Clerk James E. Simpson, Coroner Lester DuBois, Justice Roger H. Loughran, former Sheriff Edgar T. Shultz, Mayor C. J. Heiselman and Alderman-at-large Schweick. The city administration, Justice Loughran was the first speaker of the evening. He saw in the gathering of the evening a continuing interest in the politics and welfare of the Republican party. He paid a tribute to Mr. Elting, the man who had so successfully steered

Treasury Selects Saugerties P. O. Site

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP).—The treasury today announced selection of a site for a new postoffice at Saugerties, N. Y., on north side of Main street, offered by Snyder and Sauer, for $10,000.

NO CASES, NO AUDIENCE IN POLICE COURT TODAY

With everything quiet in police circles last night, there was no session of city court this morning. The usual number of unemployed who gather to hear the cases brought before Judge Bernard A. Culliton every morning was absent today on account of the cold weather. At police headquarters the lowest temperature registered on the thermometer last night was 22 degrees below zero.

Treasury Receipts.

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP).—The position of the treasury February 9 was: Receipts, $185,452,741.50; expenditures, $94,848,482.45; balance, $44,604,259.05; customs receipts for the month, $4,219,542.29. Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1) were $4,568,282,516.51; expenditures, $2,742,174,175.54. In-Sunday, if then, the mercury was rising but little in mid-morning although a bright sun in most sections provided some relief.

Troops, Police Mass 8 Homeless Men III In Paris As Shock From Monoxide Gas. Is Threatened Tonight Asleep Over Bus Barn

Many Companies of Provincial Troops and 14,000 Police Bivouacked Near Public Buildings—Partisan Politics Loom to Handicap Doumergue Cabinet Formation.

Paris, Feb. 9 (AP).—Premier-elect Gaston Doumergue struggled grimly to bring about a political truce in France today while troops were concentrated in Paris for a threatened shock tonight.

His new cabinet was expected to be formed by the time Communists, defying police, planned to occupy the Place De La Republique in the heart of the workers' district.

Company after company of provincial forces were bivouacked in and around public buildings, and 14,000 police were braced for a fight.

Meanwhile, partisan politics loomed to handicap Doumergue in his efforts to form a government designed to restore peace in France.

Radical Socialists sent former Premier Edouard Herriot to tell Doumergue that they might refuse to participate in his ministry unless they were given a full share of the cabinet posts.

Tonight's manifestations were called against a government "of parties and fascism."

Adding to the seriousness of this immediate situation was the 24-hour general strike called by the federation of labor for Monday. One of the most serious aspects of the strike was seen in the announcement that $90,000 French civil servants would join the walkout.

The civil servants, angered by pay cuts, include employees of transportation, communication, water, electricity and gas public service units.

Today the school teachers' union joined the strike movement with an order for the closing of all schools Monday.

As Doumergue conferred with veteran statesmen from whom he planned to form his government, steps were taken to meet the impending disturbances and walkouts.

Detachments of naval mechanics were ordered from Brest and other ports to replace the Paris strikers.

Strong units of infantry, cavalry and artillery from suburban garrisons were brought in to reinforce regular troops in the event of possible violence.

Herriot Joins Cabinet.

Paris, Feb. 9 (AP).—Former Premier Edouard Herriot resigned as president of the radical socialist group today to join the cabinet of Premier-designate Gaston Doumergue.

Herriot announced the personnel of the "older statesmen" cabinet. It included five former premiers, Herriot, Louis Barthou, Andre Tardieu, Albert Sarraut, and Pierre Laval.

With a few exceptions, Herriot's prediction proved correct. The cabinet, as named officially by Doumergue, follows:

Premier, Gaston Doumergue; Ministers of state, former Premiers Andre Tardieu and Edouard Herriot without portfolio; Foreign affairs, former Premier Louis Barthou;

War, Marshal Henri Pétain; Navy, Francois Pietri; Air, General Denain; Commerce and Communications, Lucien Lamoureux;

Interior, former Premier Albert Sarraut; Finance, Germain Martin; Justice, Henry Cheron;

Health and hygiene, Louis Martin; Education, Aime Berthod; Colonies, former Premier Pierre Laval;

Public works, Etienne Flandin; Labor, Adrien Marquet; Agriculture, Henri Queuille;

Pensions, Andre Rivollet; Merchant marine, William Bertrand.

The socialists are represented on the cabinet by Marquet.

It is the first time in many years that a cabinet has been formed including men who are not members of parliament.

The manifestations called for tonight were directed against a government "of parties and fascism."

Fumes from starting buses seep into Welfare Sleeping Quarters Over Terminal—All Windows Were Closed—40 Men Asleep in the Barn.

Schenectady, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—Eight homeless men, quartered on the second floor of the bus terminal at the Schenectady Railway Company, were taken to a hospital today suffering from carbon monoxide gas poisoning.

The fumes from the starting buses seeped up through the floor to a large room where a number of homeless and jobless men were sleeping.

The men were being supported by federal funds under the direction of the county welfare superintendent.

Forty men were asleep in the Fuller street car barn, as the bus terminal was known. When the poisonous gas seeped into the room many of them were overcome at once.

Because of the bitter cold weather all windows were closed.

Several men, able to shake off the enervating fumes, called for help and themselves began to remove their unconscious companions.

The hospital reported that all the sufferers were expected to recover. Those taken to the hospital were listed as:

Robert Wilson, 63, Saratoga Springs; John Martin, 51, of Pennsylvania; Frank Butler, 37, 1135 East Main street, Rochester;

George Edmonds, 26, Schenectady; John Hoffman, 30, Ballston Spa; an employee of the bus company; Edward Turner, 38, Akron, Ohio;

John Barlow, 31, Detroit; Wayne Gumpster, 21, 19 North Congress street, Newton, Pa.

Hospital officials were not certain the information they obtained from the gas victims was correct as several of them were weak and almost unable to talk.

2 Men Arrested, Held For Questioning Today As Bremer Suspects

Men Thought to Be Bootleggers Captured in Alleged Stolen Car Containing Money in Same Denominations as Ransom Paid to Captors.

Milwaukee, Feb. 9 (AP).—Detectives today questioned two men, believed to be bootleggers, who were arrested last night while speeding in an automobile with a Minnesota license.

In the car were weapons and $2,000 in $5 and $10 and $20 bills, the police said. They also sought to link them with the kidnapping of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul, whose family paid $200,000 for his release from his abductors Wednesday.

In addition to the Bremer connection police sought to learn whether the pair had taken part in the hold-up of a passenger train from a Duluth butcher earlier in the week.

Serial numbers of the bills were checked to determine whether any ransom notes were among them. The ransom was paid in $5 and $10 bills.

Conflicting stories were told by the men. One insisted that they were in Milwaukee on an alcohol deal while the other, who said his home was Grand Rapids, Minn., declared they were buying slot machines.

St. Paul police said their automobile was stolen from Dr. Oscar Olson of Grand Rapids.

Fire Arson Licenses.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—Licenses for carrying firearms would expire one year from the date of issuance instead of the ensuing January 1, under provisions of a bill before the legislature today. It was introduced by Assemblyman Fayette E. Pease, Niagara county Republican.

Coldest Night of Winter Gripped City; 30 Below

At 7 O'Clock This Morning Thermometers on Clinton Avenue Recorded 30 Below Zero—Hurley Avenue Recorded 32 Below and Bearsville 37 Below—Water Pipes Frozen Kept Plumbers Busy.

TONIGHT IS PREDICTED AS THE COLDEST SO FAR

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—Another night of record breaking cold weather for New York state was forecast today with a promise that tomorrow would find thermometers climbing back to normal mid-winter temperatures.

Tonight, the third of this run of bitterly cold weather, will be the coldest of the three, the forecast here said. Last night was colder than the night before.

Five thermometers at "Frost Pocket" forewarned camp near Wanakenas, on the western slope of the Adirondacks, in St. Lawrence county, showed 60 below zero last night. The night before they scored a minus 55. In Wanakenas, itself, the best the mercury could do was 48 below. Sixty below is the season's record.

Admiral Byrd would have felt perfectly at home in Kingston on Thursday night and today, for the city was gripped by the coldest weather so far experienced this winter.

At 7 o'clock this morning thermometers on Clinton avenue recorded 30 degrees below zero, while Hurley avenue thermometers went two degrees better with 32 below recorded. At Bearsville this morning at 7 o'clock it was 37 degrees below zero.

After the subzero weather of Wednesday night the thermometers registered close to the zero mark all day on Thursday and shortly after 5 o'clock in the afternoon it began to grow even colder and 5 degrees below was recorded at 5:30 o'clock and a few hours later a low of 25 degrees was recorded on Clinton avenue.

So cold was the night that in many houses the water pipes froze for the first time this winter. When the local plumbing shops opened for business this morning they were swamped with calls for plumbers to thaw out frozen pipes.

At the uptown Freeman office the big oil burner suddenly stopped working some time during the night and when employees in the building reported for work it was to find the building in the grip of zero weather. Water pipes were frozen solid. The building is occupied on the second floor by Spencer's Business School and when the pupils reported this morning they were given half a day off until the building became warmed.

So cold was it in the building that it was impossible to use the typewriters as even the keys were frozen. Old Bill Leegid, veteran trapper and hunter of the Shawangunk Mountains would have made himself feel at home in the building for it may have been even colder in his shack, but that is hard to believe.

At the local CWA office it was stated that the men were not working as at 8 o'clock 22 degrees were reported.

Many automobile owners found it impossible to get their cars started this morning. As a result the local taxi companies were swamped with business, and in many cases patrons had to wait for an hour or more before they could obtain a cab to convey them to work.

It was too cold to walk to work and as a result the bus line did a rushing business and the buses were crowded on practically all of their trips during the early hours of the morning.

Householders who forgot to bring the bottle of milk in from the porch found the milk frozen solid in the bottle and in many cases even the bottle was so cracked that it fell apart when efforts were made to get the frozen milk out of the bottle.

Business was slack in practically all of the business places in the city as householders stayed at home and kept the home fires burning. Hearing plants were kept operating at full force in order to keep homes and business houses at least fairly comfortable.

The men who were forced to get out on the streets during the morning had their fingers and ears nipped by the intense cold.

And the weather man is not promising much relief from the cold wave.

Senate Today Orders MacCracken's Arrest

Hoover Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Air Falls to Appear Before Senate Committee—3 Co-defendants Were on Hand.

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP).—The Senate, defied today by William T. MacCracken—Hoover assistant secretary of commerce for air—ordered his arrest.

He failed to appear for the scheduled opening of his trial on contempt charges, challenging the Senate's authority.

Three co-defendants, all attorneys to air companies that benefited from air mail contracts in the last administration, were on hand, however. Once the MacCracken position had been read to the Senate, Senator Black (D-Ala.), chairman of the committee investigating air mail contracts, introduced the resolution ordering MacCracken's immediate arrest.

It was adopted without a record vote.

MacCracken had been free on his personal bond.

He, as their counsel, and the other three were cited on charges of contempt of the Senate in removal of evidence from MacCracken's files after these had been subpoenaed.

Sankey Keeps Word And Beats the Law By Hanging in Cell

America's "Public Enemy No. 1," Held for Bootcher Kidnaping, Ends Life With Nose Made From Neckties and a Handkerchief.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Feb. 9 (AP).—Verne Sankey has kept his word to "beat the law."

With a nose fashioned from two neckties and with a handkerchief in his mouth to prevent any involuntary cry, he hanged himself in his cell at South Dakota penitentiary last night.

When they caught him in Chicago last week, with gun muzzles rammed against him as he lay in a barber chair, he had no chance to use the poison pills hidden in his overcoat.

But last night, on the eve of his arraignment to a charge of conspiracy to kidnap Charles Bootcher the second of Denver, he "beat the rap" with death.

Out of all the blustering company of gang chiefs and "public enemies," Verne Sankey, called "America's public enemy number one," is the only one of national notoriety to die by his own hand. The nearest analogy is provided in the case of the Touhy gangster, Willie Sharkey, who killed himself in his cell at St. Paul, Minn., following acquittal on charges growing out of the Hamm kidnapping case.

Sankey announced only a few days ago that he would plead guilty to charges in the Bootcher case today. The ex-railroader-rancher-bootlegger-kidnaper apparently plotted his death carefully. He waited until the two guards on duty in his cell block were out of sight. Quickly he knotted the necktie-rope to the bar of the cage, slipped the crude but strong noose about his neck, and stepped from his bunk. They found him dead, his body swinging from the bar.

Sankey's brain had engineered schemes that netted him $50,000 in the Bootcher case and $12,000 in the kidnapping of Haskell Bohm of St. Paul, but it was unable to trick the law that snapp'd its taints on the desperado in Chicago last week and flung him into a prison cell here.

YOUTH WALKS A MILE AFTER BEING WOUNDED.

Granville, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—George Duga, 16, of Wells, Vt., was fighting for his life in a hospital here today from shotgun wounds in his head and left hand, from which he lost much blood before being treated. The boy was hunting rabbits yesterday afternoon when he placed his gun against a bush. His right thumb, placed over the muzzle when he reached for the weapon, was blown off and more than 50 pellets entered his face and head when the trigger caught on the bush. He walked about a mile after being wounded.

Swims at 18 Below.

Auburn, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—Carl Dickman, Auburn athlete, continues to show his disdain of cold weather by swimming outdoors despite subzero temperatures. He "cut" a "great" last night after a seven-minute dip in Otsego river water from which he had to scoop away the ice before diving in. The water registered 22 degrees, but out of the water it was 18 below zero, and not cold enough to prevent a little "warming up" while Dickman was in his bathing suit.

Buffalo Relief Less.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—Buffalo relief food is dropping. The board of social welfare reported yesterday CWA jobs have removed 1,077 families from the roll, which now totals 15,303.

A Washington Daybook

By HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON—It would be a surprise to Washington should republicans in congress attempt to apply pressure to force some sort of an investigation into Civil Works administration activities.

A start to that direction has been made in the house. Clifford of Massachusetts, ranking republican of the committee on expenditures in executive departments, has demanded that this committee call the CWA administrator before it for an accounting.

Democrats are expected to continue opposing such a move.

Republicans desire a "cheap show" in the way Cochran of Missouri, chairman of the committee, expresses it. He has said fully he is willing to go "fishing" with Clifford at any time, but first he must prove he has the right "bait."

A congressional committee may not hold CWA up to the light, but it seems certain criticism leveled at Hopkins' outfit are in for an airing. Before congress appropriates the additional millions asked by the President, a lot of questions will be asked before the money is granted.

Professor Fees

ONE of the most spirited attacks on the President's new monetary program in the senate was made by Fess of Ohio, one of the few remaining members of the republic "old guard."

Fess resented some of his colleagues' sarcasm for the group of college professors who advise with President Roosevelt. He left no doubt as to what he thought of professors in politics. Yet the senator sets down in his official biography:

"Professor of History, Ohio Northern University; dean of college of law, vice president Ohio Northern University; graduate student and lecturer, University of Chicago; president of Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio."

Diplomatic Chukches

THEY'RE chukching over this one in Latin-America diplomatic circles:

After Mayor LaGuardia of New York handed Tammany a drubbing in the city elections last year he cruised to Panama for a vacation. Antonio C. Gonzalez is U. S. minister to that country, appointed by President Roosevelt.

Gonzalez is an ardent Tammanyite and reports came that during the New York mayor's visit there was a little coolness—that everything didn't go off strictly according to protocol, as they say in diplomatic circles.

At any rate, that was the story investigated by a Panama newspaper, which then headlined: "Tammany Politics Invades Hears of Latin America."

BANK NOTES, 'NO TOYS,' GANDHI RULE FOR GIFTS

Madras (AP)—"No toys, please," is the heading under which the Mahatma Gandhi, now touring India on behalf of the depressed classes, writes in a newspaper.

He urges localities through which he passes not to try to set up records in "presenting toys and the like."

"Some give little silver cups, some trays; some present other fancy things not easily portable. I cannot induce buyers on the spot to bid for numerous things and, however tempting they may be for the cause, they become a nuisance."

He mentioned incidentally that in presenting purses "bank notes should be used wherever possible instead of coins."

SPAIN TO SEEK SOLDIERS HELD AS MOORISH SERFS

Madrid (AP)—Recurrent reports that a number of Spanish soldiers still are held prisoners of the Moors in the Sahara have given rise to a proposal in congress that an expedition be dispatched to settle the rumors.

The Moors took many prisoners in the combats of 1921, 1924 and 1925, but after the final Spanish victory all were supposed to have been liberated.

Since then there have been periodic reports that some of the prisoners still are held as slaves in remote desert strongholds.

GERMAN REFUGEE INFLUX FILLS PARIS APARTMENTS

Paris (AP)—German refugees numbering 12,000 have caused an apartment shortage in Paris. The number of self-exiled Germans in the French capital is the estimate of delighted rental agents.

Fugitives from the Hitler regime have virtually cleared the market of vacant apartments, the agents say. They have been able to obtain favorable rates, landlords add, because they brought their wealth with them and paid a year in advance.

Hotels of the Champs Elysees section, formerly half-empty because of the tourist slump, also are enjoying good times again.

DOG'S DOCILITY SAVES HIS BREED

Hobart, Tasmania (AP)—An Alsatian dog appeared in the Tasmanian house of assembly to "plead" its own cause and prevented the extermination of its fellows.

A countrywide agitation against the breed, on the grounds that these dogs kill sheep, was being debated in the house. A large Alsatian was brought in for the members' inspection.

They were so impressed by its docile appearance that a motion for the extermination of Alsatis in Tasmania was withdrawn.

At-Sea Signal Light On Azores
Horta, Island of Fayal (AP)—In preparation for the day when trans-Atlantic aircraft will take the route via the Azores, a new lighthouse at Azora de Mercurio, Island of Terceira, started flashing its light both to sea and air on February 1. The Azores hope to become a junction point for east-west and north-south traffic.

STALIN FORMER PERSON TO MUSEUM ART EXHIBITS

Tiflis, U. S. S. R. (AP)—Old Metek castle, a prison where Joseph Stalin and other leaders of the Soviet regime were incarcerated for revolutionary activities, is being converted into an art museum.

Used for more than ten years as a prison for criminals as well as political offenders by both the czarist and soviet governments, the grim stone structure entered on its new regime on the twentieth anniversary of the Russian revolution when all its inmates were transferred and preparations were made for alterations to be completed within a year.

Stalin was imprisoned there in 1907 and after his revolutionary work began but escaped after serving only a few months of his sentence. Moscow, having president of the central executive committee of the soviet government, and Maxim Gorky, leading soviet writer, also languished in its dank cells.

The castle, which consists of five separate buildings, was built in 1829 adjoining a 15th century church, which also is in a well-preserved state.

Chimpanzees Protected

Leopoldville, Belgian Congo (AP)—To afford greater protection to the declining number of Congolese chimpanzees, the export duty on live animals has been raised from 150 francs (normally $5) to 1,000 francs (normally $21.50).

Danes to Build Tower

Copenhagen (AP)—A tower 85 feet higher than the Eiffel tower is to be built on the shores of Pebling lake, Copenhagen. It will be 1,040 feet high and will contain a skating rink, club rooms and a restaurant 980 feet up.

Where risks are greatquality is proved!

WHETHER it's a man... a gasoline... or a motor oil... true quality proves itself in the Antarctic. Bitter cold, driving gales, constant danger test stamina and character.

TYDOL Gasoline and VEEDOL Motor Oil shared Admiral Byrd's conquest of the South Pole in 1928, and that he chose them again in 1934 is a tribute to their quality.

Right now, under the toughest conditions, TYDOL is furnishing instant power, and VEEDOL is supplying safe lubrication to all Admiral Byrd's motor equipment.

Try the same cold-proof VEEDOL Motor Oil Admiral Byrd uses... in your own car... And Triple "X" TYDOL, the gasoline that gives proved half-second starting plus instant lubrication in cold weather! They will give you better winter driving.

Move on To Broaden Kingston Boy Scouts State Divorce Laws Await Roosevelt Talk

Republican Assemblyman Would Make Three Years' Duration Legal Grounds in Bill Presented Today—For "Justice and to Eradicate Source of Corruption."

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—A move to broaden the New York state divorce laws by making desertion for three years legal grounds is under way in the legislature today.

A bill proposing such legislation was introduced by Assemblyman I. Arnold Ross, New York Republican.

"For the sake of common justice, to eradicate a source of corruption and contempt for law, and to bring our state in line with the general thought of the rest of the nation, I feel the passage of this measure is of vital importance," he declared.

New York is one of the three remaining states in which desertion is not a ground for divorce, the other two being the Carolinas.

"The result of the rigidity of our divorce law has been the wholesale practice of collusion in our divorce courts and a steadily growing contempt for the law as it stands," said Assemblyman Ross.

Thawing Pipes Is Cause of 2 Fires

Two still alarms were sent in to the Central Fire Station, East O'Reilly street, this morning because of fires caused by people trying to thaw out frozen water pipes.

The first alarm was sent in at 5:39, calling the fire department to 74 Cedar street where H. Reuben, owner of the house, in trying to thaw the pipes in the second story apartment set fire to the floor. Chemicals were used in quenching the flames which did slight damage but burned Mr. Reuben about the hands. He was given first aid by the firemen from their Red Cross kit on the truck.

At 9:15 the department was summoned to the Quest home on Tremper avenue and Downs street where a torch used to thaw water pipes set fire to the floor. Chemicals were also used to stop this fire.

3 Negroes Executed Last Night in Texas

Huntsville, Tex., Feb. 9 (AP).—Three negroes went to their deaths in the electric chair at the state penitentiary here early today for murders committed in Dallas county. In quick succession, the condemned men, Jesse Mott, Thurman Burkley and Blunt Burkley, met their fate.

The Burkley brothers were given the extreme penalty for their part in the murder of Miss Kathryn Prince, last August. Her companion, Mace Carver, was wounded by the negroes.

Mott was convicted of the slaying of Jones Tatum, on oil station employee.

2 Men Convicted Of Misapplying Funds

Cleveland, O., Feb. 9 (AP).—Alvanley Johnston, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and C. Stirling Smith, president of the now closed Standard Trust Bank, were convicted today by a jury on charges of misapplying $45,000 of the bank's funds and of making false entries.

The verdict was given by the jury of nine men and three women after 15 hours of deliberations.

Coal Companies Are Swamped With Orders

The subzero weather has swamped the local coal dealers with orders. Some of the dealers reported their supplies quickly exhausted, but the Kingston Coal Company fortunately had a large supply on hand, and has been assisting those dealers who were waiting for shipments from the mine to supply their trade with coal. Although the demand for coal has been extremely heavy one of the large local dealers stated today that there was enough coal on hand in the local yards to care for the demands.

Hospital Refuses Daladier's Check

Paris, Feb. 9 (AP).—Edouard Daladier's check for $5,000 francs (about $3,000) was refused today by the police hospital where 200 persons were treated for wounds received in this week's riots.

"The mourning of Paris is too deep and too poignant for this house to accept a gift having so close a link with the recent dolorous events," said the hospital director's letter to the outgoing premier.

Claims Co. Made Huge Plane Profit

Washington, Feb. 9 (AP).—The House military affairs committee was told today that one contractor—the Consolidated Aircraft Company of Buffalo, N. Y.—made such a big profit on his war business that he agreed to sell 50 additional airplanes to the army for a dollar apiece.

All members of the Boy Scouts of the Kingston district as well as scouts in other parts of the country are awaiting tonight the call to service which President Roosevelt will give tomorrow at 12 noon over the National and Columbia broadcasting systems.

The scouts in the Kingston district, which composes the city of Kingston, Port Ewen, High Falls, and Shokan will meet at 11:45 a. m. in the council chambers in the city hall. A radio has been installed by Sweeney and Schonger so that there will be good reception. Heads of all the various welfare agencies as well as the acting mayor and members of the Board of Aldermen have been invited to attend.

1934 Peach Crop Said To be Harmed by Cold

Lockport, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—1934 peach crop of the Niagara fruit belt may be a failure because of last night's 26 below zero temperature through most of the area. Fifteen below zero is considered killing for peach buds.

John J. Goodrich, fruit specialist of the County Farm Bureau, said other fruits, with the possible exception of cherries, were not expected to suffer.

It will be several days before the full extent of the damage can be determined.

Cold Snaps Power Lines.

New Berlin, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP).—Repairs were rushed today on power lines which snapped in the extreme cold of last night, leaving seven communities in darkness. Affected were the city of Norwich and the villages of Mt. Upton, New Berlin, South New Berlin, Edmeston, South Edmeston and Morris.

London Bands Try To 'Play British' But Tunes Smack Of American Jazz

By OSCAR LEIDING.

London. (AP)—John Bull's entertainers are playing and singing more British—but with a flavor that is distinctly American.

The crescendo of American jazz, which lifted the roofs over dance halls, the variety stage and night clubs in its hey-day, shook the pride of British musicians.

It gave them an incentive to see what they could do and today, though they admit that much of what they are doing is in imitation of American entertainment, British tunes are on the up-grade.

Seek "Sweet" Tunes
Partly, it is explained, tastes are continually changing and the current trend is away from "hot" tunes, which are distinctly American, to "sweet" tunes, which are more typically British.

American ways, however, maintain a strong popularity. The American crooner finds his or her counterpart here in a British crooner—albeit with sometimes an undercurrent of Lancashire accent.

There is a crop of British blues singers and one of the most successful purveyors of negro melodies is as English as John Bull. Her secret is that she was taught by an American negro.

Leading American dance bands still set a British audience wild but labor regulations make their visits few and far between and not of long duration.

Recruit Bands in Canada
As a result, many English band leaders who seek to deliver a true American brand of music have drawn on Canada for the backbone of their groups.

Whether a band is English to the core or has an empire stamp, the personal preferences of the leader dictate whether American or English tunes are given the emphasis.

An example of the comparative treatment of English and American tunes is furnished by Henry Hall, leader of the British Broadcasting Corporation's dance orchestra.

Where, in the past, there was an overwhelming preponderance of American tunes, his programs now are 47 per cent American, 47 per cent British and six per cent continental.

The Bright Lights Of London.

Piccadilly Circus, traditional center of London's night life, echoes in the wee sma' hours to British dance bands which, try as they will, can't get away from the motifs (that's Wagnerian for "tunes") of American jazz.

Irish War On Jazz.

An added explanation of the British trend is the rise of British-made films which has put many lyric and music writers to work to supply a domestic market long eclipsed by Hollywood.

Meanwhile, in the Irish Free State a campaign against jazz has spread from the radio to the dance halls. Judges, priests and police are combining to combat what they declare to be one of the greatest evils with which the country is faced.

Traditional Irish dancing is booming in rural areas and the Gaelic League is arranging with film companies to produce movies demonstrating various figure dances. Handbooks on Irish dancing also are being published.

Cook—Well, mum, I can cook French beans, Brussels sprouts, Dutch cheese, German sausages, Jerusalem artichokes, and Spanish onions.

The Precocious Child

By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH

Precocious children are usually more of a problem than backward children.

The educational world is tired for slowness rather than speed, and the child who is to any marked degree advanced for his age stands out conspicuously against the uniform background of mediocre attainment.

The effect on the child of being always ungraded, either forced into association with people too old for his actual years, and often not his equals mentally in spite of their age, or reduced to the faculty of lagging behind with his contemporaries who offer no opportunity for competition in the class room, is deplorable. In either case he is doomed to loneliness in youth.

Of the two evils, probably the lesser one is to allow him to satisfy his mental cravings. To hold him back is eventually to destroy his ambition, and ruin his powers of concentration. No child will make an effort if his ambition is stifled. No normal child will work where work is necessary.

As a result, the foundations for future achievement will be neglected, and when he comes to facing real study, he must one day do so, he will find not only that he has lost the ability to work, but that the basic material—the mere elementary mechanics of arithmetic, spelling, writing—is not in his grasp.

He will be lonely. It is true, if his schoolmates are all older than himself, but he will at least have the satisfaction of doing good work, and of associating with his equals.

By the time he reaches college or work the picture will have changed. He will find companions, and the rest of his life will be full and rich enough to make up for his loneliness in school.

Senior Play Tonight At The High School

This evening at 8:15 in the Kingston High School Auditorium, the senior class of the high school will present as their annual production, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," by George M. Cohan, actor-playwright.

This play will undoubtedly play to a packed house, as last night all of the higher-priced seats had been reserved, while only a few of the lower priced seats were remaining available. These could be reserved any time today, up until the opening curtain, this evening at 8:15, in the front corridor of the high school. The play is laid in the office of Baldpate Inc., perched high up in the mountains away from civilization in the dead of winter.

Milk Board Head To Ask Control Veto

Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Chairman Charles H. Baldwin of the New York State Milk Control Board said today he would ask Governor Lehman "to veto any bill to continue the milk control board" unless the board is given greater powers over the milk industry.

"By that veto milk business would be returned to a free competitive basis," the chairman said. Mr. Baldwin spoke at a hearing held by the A. A. A. on the proposed marketing bill sent for the New York milk state. About 1,000 farmers filed Lincoln Auditorium in Central High School. He revealed that legislation is sought to be introduced "to place upon some individual or group a responsibility far greater than has been borne by our present board during the past year."

Miss Barbara Trenching is being kept from her classes at the high school by illness.

Next Monday night the members of the Shokan troop of Boy Scouts will journey to Kingston for the annual Scout rally. Several of the boys will exhibit specimens of their skill in crafts as was the case at last year's rally, when they won several prizes.

Fred Adait, a committeeman of the United-Grange Council, and the Rev. August Pfau, leader of Troop 24, will accompany the local Scouts to Kingston.

An Olive real estate transfer of Feb. 8, 1934, was that of a parcel of land from Mrs. Rebecca Ennist to John Ennist, his son. The Ennist family owned a large tract of land on the west side of the Kaopus creek at Shokan. There are many descendants of Mrs. Ennist residing in Ulster county.

Miss Adele Spalletta of New York city spent the week-end with her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Stubby.

Frank Hyatt of New Jersey was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adait. Mr. Hyatt, who is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Barclay of Ashokan, formerly was a frequent visitor in this section.

Dr. Joseph J. Cosgrove's many friends are glad to see the doctor home again after an absence of some time. The doctor, though greatly improved in health, is not yet entirely recovered from the effects of his recent illness.

The members of the honor roll for January at the Shokan school are: Lois Robeson, Annette Robeson and Ethel Selan.

Members of the local unit of the Home Bureau met at the home of Mrs. George Sicker in Ashokan last Friday afternoon for the final lesson of the series on crafts. Miss Evelyn Nance, county agent, was present and advised those who had begun work on specimens of stitchey, block printing and other craft work. Members in attendance at the meeting were as follows: Mrs. C. H. Weidner, Miss Gladys Vandemark, Mrs. Alonzo Davis, Miss Carrie Brooks, Mrs. Justus North, Mrs. August Pfau, Mrs. Margaret Windrum, Mrs. Fred Adait, Mrs. G. Sicker, Mrs. Chester Lyons and Mrs. Floyd Merrihew. The next meeting of the bureau will take place at the home of Mrs. C. H. Weidner February 14. This will be the lesson on modern methods of housecleaning, postponed from February 8. Mrs. Fred Adait and Mrs. Floyd Merrihew, instructors, went to Kingston Tuesday for the purpose of learning how to conduct the class at the next meeting.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—There's a story ready for production in Hollywood and waiting for a star.

It's about two negro boys who have learned what winter in New York is like and want to get back to Dixie. The pair roam the water front until they spy a vessel bearing the name, "Miss New Orleans."

They board it joyfully and get jobs, and it is not until the boat is under way that they discover that "Miss New Orleans" is a whaling ship headed for polar snow and ice.

The plans were all made for harbor locations at San Pedro, and in a few days the cameras and sound trucks would have been down there at work. But the plans are off now. It's just a picture waiting for a star—for a couple of stars, in fact. It would have marked the return to Hollywood of the "Two-Black-Crows."

His Good Luck Piece

Charlie Mack, the "Black Crow" who met his death in the Arizona automobile accident the other day, was like many other actors in cherishing a pet superstition. Mack's was a lucky token he carried in his pocket, an absurd little ball made of rolled-up strands of copper wire.

He once said that it had been with him since his first appearance on the stage—that eight-day turn he did for Alexander Pantages up in Seattle. Electricians suddenly turned actor are quite likely to pick up stray strands of copper wire and roll them into balls as they stand in the wings awaiting their cue.

Once a movie director who knew Mack's loyalty to his token, thought he'd have some fun. Just before a scene was to start, he "picked" the actor's pocket. But Mack discovered the loss before he went on, and wouldn't continue until he had regained his treasure.

The Ring Stars On

Maureen O'Sullivan was on the set of "Tarzan and His Mate" again the other day—for her first work before a camera since her hospital siege.

When the film is completed, Maureen will visit Ireland again. Whether she will travel as Mrs. John Farrow, wife of the scenarioist, she does not know. Large among the obstacles to setting a wedding date is the desire of both, she says, to marry in the Catholic church. Farrow having been divorced, they must seek a dispensation.

But the big square-cut diamond still glitters on the proper finger of Maureen's hand.

Mrs. C. B. Whitehead of Fort Worth is believed the first woman to be awarded a Texas highway contract.

Argentine Pampa

Argentine Cowboys.

Presented by National Geographic Society.

THE Argentine government is augmenting its fighting forces against devastating horse thieves with 12,000 pieces of shot iron barbed wire to be used on its famous pampa.

Pampa was the Indians' name for plains. Spanish colonists took the name, and thus the world knows the vast, flat Argentine grasslands that sweep from the Atlantic seaboard to the foot of the Andes mountains.

History placed the pampa as a vast stage for one of its most eventful and swift-moving dramas. Probably no other region, in so brief a time, has seen more astounding changes. More Europeans are settled here, more cities are leaping up, more railroads are being built, and more wealth amassed than in any equal area below the equator. Ask Paris writers if any other visitor spends like an Argentine cowboy, who "leaves all change on the place."

Alfalfa alone, as we shall see, migrated to this new land to bring it amazing economic strength. In a few short decades, with such forces as prize bulls, barbed wire, cold storage and fast ships, man turned a wilderness into a farm so big and rich that now it helps fix the world price of bread and meat.

This swift rise of a new Canada, whose theme song, as a Texan hinted, is the ceaseless moan and howl of myriad kine, affords a fantastic example of mass migration. Its marvel is not in the fact that millions of white settlers swarmed across the South Atlantic to this fecund pampa. That was extraordinary, of course; you can imagine the infinite host slipping down under the equatorial horizon like figures turning in a phenakistoscope.

Extraordinary Migration.

But the whole truth is harder to imagine. Not only did the millions move from southern Europe, but, as it lifted and carried overseas on some magic carpet, they took with them to the pampa a cross-section of European life. Speech, culture, religion, manners, and customs they carried; likewise tools and trades—even their animals, fowls, grains, fruits, flowers—weds.

Today their thistle almost covers Argentina. Tradition says the first thistle seed came over accidentally. In the long hair of army mules! Along immigrant trails into the pampa a scattered fringe of European grass, weeds, vegetables, and berries first grew up, where fodder, camp refuse, and seeds from food were dropped, just as along the Santa Fe and Oregon trails our covered-wagon trains introduced many berries, plants, and fruit trees from farther east. History holds no parallel in time or space to certain aspects of this amazing movement of people and plant life.

But, one asks, since whites first landed, some 400 years ago, why was the conquest of the pampa so long delayed? The reasons are plain, yet curiously interesting.

Except for Indians, who at first dwelt near the River Plate country, the pampa was empty. No glittering pagan cities, no rich gold mines or luscious treasure were here to lure the Conquistadores. Also, Europe still lived then from its own farms. It had not yet grown so thickly peopled or so highly industrialized that, as later, it had to look overseas for more bread and meat.

Here, as in our own land, white settlements were long confined to limited regions. The Atlantic seaboard had been settled for many generations before we knew much about our Far West. So it was on the pampa, with this difference: Spain, who early ruled most of South America, long allowed sea trade only through Porto Bello (Puerto Bello), in Panama. It took about two years, by land and sea, to exchange goods between Cadiz, in Spain, and the settlements along the River Plate (Plata).

Early Inland Development.

This decree, while it made life hard for traders in Buenos Aires and encouraged smuggling by Dutch and English ships, really hastened the development of certain Argentine back country by many centuries. Tucuman, Cordoba, Mendoza, and Jujuy, for example, though far inland, were founded centuries ago because they lay along the Andean trade paths over which Spanish goods came down from Panama and Peru to the Plate settlements.

Some of the first sugar mills in the western world, crude and primitive yet making good sugar, were built about Tucuman.

France Builds "Flying Battleship"

Monster-Like Land Bomber Also Added To Air Force

Here is France's "Flying battleship," a huge seaplane which on recent tests proved itself capable of dodging hostile fleets 500 miles at sea and returning to its base. It carries machine guns with which to ward off attacks.

Paris (AP)—A "Flying battleship," armed with three machine guns, and a huge speedy bombing land-plane are being added to France's air force as additions to the country's defense system.

The seaplane, the biggest fighting craft of its kind in France, capable of carrying 14 tons of useful load, also is intended as a model for planes to be used in the French air-mail service to South America and passenger service across the Mediterranean.

Tests Prove Seaplane.

Described by its builder, Louis Breguet, as a "high seas" plane, the ship is designed for long cruises over water. Thus it could fly far from its base to drop bombs on enemy ships, while keeping off aerial pursuers with its machine guns, forward and amidships.

Projected by motors of 2,400 horsepower in all, it demonstrated its ability, in tests recently completed at Le Havre, to speed fully loaded at 155 miles an hour for more than 1,100 miles. Quick on the take-off, it climbs a mile in seven minutes.

Bomber Is Monster.

For airmail service across the South Atlantic, the plane would be fitted to carry 14 tons of mail, while for passenger service linking Marseilles, Algiers and Tunis, it would be given a second-class cabin for eleven passengers, a first-class cabin for six and a de luxe cabin for two. The monster-like new bomber, powered with four engines, is designed like the seaplane for rapid climbing and flight over a long range with a heavy load. Its details have not been announced, pending completion of trials, but it is intended to meet criticism from various French quarters that the nation's air force is inadequate in the face of neighboring fleets, particularly that of Italy.

Speedier Planes Planned.

Models for still speedier and more powerful planes, able to climb to 22,000 feet in less than 30 minutes and cruise at 235 miles an hour, also have been adopted by the French. They were prompted by reports that Germany had developed a plane of that speed. But scrapping of old machines is not scheduled before 1937 or 1938.

Boy Scout Movement Is Subject Discussed Before Kiwanis Club

Scout Executive Wright Tells Purpose and Plans of Scouting—Roger Loughran Introduces Speaker—Howard Kimsey Guest.

At the conclusion of the weekly luncheon of the Kingston Kiwanis Club, held at the Governor Clinton Hotel, Thursday noon, the following guests were introduced: Henry Darrow, W. Frank Davis, Thomas Goodman and James G. Norton of Kingston; Howard W. Kimsey of New York city; A. Mitchell, Jr., of Albany, and W. A. Wright of Kingston.

Mr. Kimsey, who is in this city in connection with evangelistic services being held at the Roundout Methodist Church, is a former Kiwanian and occupies the position of song leader in one of the large New York service clubs. After the meal, he rendered several selections, and his work as a bass soloist was enjoyed by all members of the club present. Daniel Blitner served as accompanist.

Roger H. Loughran, as chairman of the program committee, then introduced as the speaker of the day, William A. Wright, Scout Executive of Kingston. In making the introduction, Mr. Loughran said that several years ago an American named Boies, while in London, became lost in the fog. He sought assistance from a boy on the street who consented to lead the confused visitor to safety. Mr. Boies offered to recompense the young man who stoutly refused to accept any payment. On being asked the reason, the young man stated that he was a Scout and would, therefore, accept no pay. This situation so impressed the gentleman that on his return to America he became active in establishing the Boy Scouts of America on this side of the ocean. It was just 24 years ago to the day that the movement was first launched in the United States, and Mr. Loughran stated inasmuch as throughout the entire country ceremonies commemorating this act were being observed, it was fitting that the Kiwanis Club should take part in the anniversary. Mr. Wright, he stated, was eminently fitted to address the club on this subject.

Executive Wright in the course of his talk said that while the Boy Scout organization has received hearty support from the people of the United States, there is still ground for improvement and he felt that any lack of interest could be readily overcome if the public could become intimately acquainted with the problems which the organization was facing and was in a great measure solving. In a great many instances Scout work is considered as a substitute for home or school agencies. Mr. Wright, however, declared that such was not the purpose of Scouting but that its primary interest was to serve as a reinforcement to the home and to the school and other educational influences.

It is not a toy nor a diversion for the young men of the community but it has a seriously considered and well-planned basis in which the training of the head and heart of young America is the target at which the executives are constantly aiming. In working toward this objective, the interest of the prospective Scouts is sought to be gained by training in woodcraft and hundreds of other pursuits toward which the attitude of the boy is directed.

Good Turn a Day.

The slogan of "A good turn a day" is very often spoken of in a flippant manner, but Mr. Wright stated that it was his experience that no better rule of life could be laid down than one which has as its principle some service to one's fellow man. This constitutes a training in citizenship and results have proven that it has been constructive in both a spiritual and a material sense. The recent assistance which the Boy Scouts of this district rendered in assembling wearing apparel for the use of the Relief Board in which over 3,000 pieces of clothing were collected by the boys, was cited as an example of tangible results obtained. The fact that over 1,100 men and boys in Ulster county are allied to the Boy Scout movement in which a well-defined program governs their activities and in which an organized rule of conduct has been adopted for boys and troops of different ages is illustrative of the aims and work of scouting.

Even the subject of Sea Scouting was receiving the attention of the authorities in charge of the programs, and Mr. Wright stated that at present an investigation was under way as to whether or not it might be possible to establish a troop giving attention to these interests in this district.

Even in the rural centers it seems that the young men are loyal in their support and in several instances members of various troops walk as far as five or six miles to attend their meetings, and trudge the same distance to their homes after the meetings have closed.

Indicating the far-sighted policy of the organization, a ten-year program was adopted last year which, in effect, is to endeavor to enlist in Scouting one out of every four boys during the next ten years, so that in 1943, inasmuch as these Scouts will be at least 12 years of age at the time they commence training, one out of every four voters comprising the first group, will be a Scout-trained citizen. This district, Mr. Wright said, has up to the present effected this desired result and has even surpassed the requirement; in some instances as many as 90 per cent of the available boys have been enrolled.

With respect to the situation in Kingston, within the last two years a survey of about 2,400 boys between the ages of 8 and 18 was made throughout the schools of this city. As a result it was found that in the grade schools only 50 per cent of the boys interviewed claimed to be members of a church and of this 50 per cent only about one-half stated that they observed regular attendance at church. Sixty-eight per cent of these, however, were entered at Sunday Schools but only about two-thirds were regular in their attendance. In the high school it was found that about 64 per cent were members of churches, of which a little more than half were regular in their attendance, while only about a third were reported as regular in their Sunday School work.

The survey also touched upon the leisure time, with the result that only 16 per cent of the boys interviewed were engaged in an occupation after school hours or on Saturdays, and 84 per cent had nothing to do after school or on Saturdays. Out of these 2,400 boys, it was found that 124 had already lost their fathers through death, and that 79 of them had no mothers, and that in the case of 23 or about one per cent, the children were orphans.

The problem of spare time, Mr. Wright said, was possibly the most important and furnished the best opportunity for work of the Scout organizations in that they provide a helpful interest and a medium for both physical and mental exercise as well as association of boys of the same age with each other.

The executive added that while splendid work is being done by the Y. M. C. A. and the various churches throughout the district, it is the aim of the Scout organization to furnish something which the other bodies do not supply and it is the purpose of the Boy Scouts of America to cooperate with such other organizations in furnishing a complete education for young Americans in a non-sectarian training school for better lives and better citizenship.

At the conclusion of his address, Mr. Wright was heartily applauded and thanked by the president of the club and the chairman of the program committee for his interesting and instructive talk.

Granville Davis is a patient at the Benedictine Hospital.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Virgil Gordon on February 7. There were 24 ladies present and after the regular business meeting a very pleasant social hour was spent, after which the hostess served delicious refreshments. The ladies are making up a Sunshine basket to present to Mrs. Harold Weber, who is a patient at the Benedictine Hospital. Mrs. Weber has been in the hospital nearly five weeks suffering from a cancer in her right arm. It has been necessary to amputate the arm above the elbow. Much sympathy is extended to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Silkworth spent Wednesday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Raymond Bell, at West Shokan. Mrs. Bell is ill.

Howe About: Increased Salary For Sheriff RecommendedRailroads
Early Settlers
Babylon and Chicago

By ED HOWE

THERE is much sympathy for the railroads because of the manner in which they have been ruined by automobiles and trucks. Still, the railroads raised the stage coaches. My town (Aitchison, Kan.), was once famous because the Ben Holliday stage started from there for the West. Aitchison was then as famous as Los Angeles, Medicine Hat, Washington, Chicago, or Kansas City, is now. Horace Greeley, Mark Twain, Albert D. Richardson, Artemus Ward, wrote books about it. Thousands of freight wagons started from Aitchison for the gold fields of the West; the emigrants buffalo and Indian stories collected first at Aitchison, and were sent out by the new telegraph to the world. . . . Still, Aitchison was "done up" by the railroads, and no one came to its relief.

Brand Whitlock, former American ambassador to Belgium, and writes in France to introduce an English edition of an American book, said of our country towns and communities:

"These early settlers were engaged in a conflict with circumstances that were too much for human nature. They had to work to make a bare and frugal living; they had no time for culture and refinement. There were few amenities and no gracious forms of art or manners; no background to life, no racial memory, no traditional festivals or amusements, none of these folk customs that give unity and charm to a people's life. The majority opinion was stamped by a narrow piety and assertive provincialism which ruthlessly imposed its tyranny on the whole community. The only escape from its domination and the dreary monotony of a harsh material existence was to be found either in the physical debauchery of the barroom and the demijohn, or in the emotional debauchery of the camp meeting and the religious revival."

I deny that early settlers anywhere engage in a conflict with circumstances too much for human nature; also, that men working hard to make a frugal living have no time left for culture and refinement.

The grandfather of the present secretary of agriculture lived in a country community, and asserts in his memoirs that his neighbors practiced the gracious forms of manners, and other old and good customs that give charm to a people's life.

I declare country people may do this anywhere, and at the same time work hard, practice frugal living, and grow in art, manners, and material comfort. It is not necessary for country people to go away to rowdy colleges or cities to learn good manners; the memoirs of Henry Wallace's grandfather prove my contention.

And I further declare that good manners are easier practiced anywhere than bad manners, and more profitable.

Once I was traveling, and encountered a lot of Jews waiting at some kind of wall. (They acted so strangely that a crowd of loafers had collected, to watch them carry on, as idlers gather to watch a negro baptizing.) . . . There did not seem to be a first-class Jew in the lot; they looked like professional wallers. Some of them had blue or pink whiskers, and their walling seemed to be an accusation against Arabs living in the same town. I heard that occasionally the Arabs beat up the wallers, resulting in rioting that greatly injured decent and hard-working citizens on both sides. . . . It was a poor and ridiculous show, and I soon passed on, wondering that such folly had spread over the earth.

I like better the performance of the Jews at Babylon. They were taken there as ignorant slaves, but learned everything their masters knew, and, by saving and industry, survived as a race long after the magnificent Babylonian cities had crumbled to dust.

Why don't the Jews erect monuments in memory of their really great brethren, and cheer in front of them, instead of walling over their lost cause? I should myself remove my hat in presence of a monument in memory of D'Israeli, who, alone, captured England, which the great Napoleon was unable to do with his grand army.

What a chance for Jews to cheer in presence of a monument to Julius Rosenwald, who captured modern Chicago!

The people have always known a good deal. I remember that when a boy, if any of us got out of condition and were fretful, mothers, the earliest doctors, said: "He has eaten something." . . . The modern preaching that we all eat too much, and, in our greed, frequently eat something not good for us, is not new.

In nominating a candidate for President or constable, the politicians select one who is "good newspaper copy," to please the editors and reporters. . . . I regret that this is so. A man who is the best newspaper copy is usually the worst possible man for President or constable.

One man said: "Be hard." (That is, mean, radical, quarrelsome, impudent, shocking.) . . . Another said: "Be politely indifferent." . . . The advice of the second man is far better and less troublesome.

prisoners are unemployed. It might be well for the Board of Supervisors to consider securing some land suitable for gardening and employ some of the unemployed prisoners during the summer season at raising potatoes, vegetables, etc. for the jail, rather than to detain them in idleness.

A jail physician is appointed by the Board of Supervisors and comes to the jail on call. Should a prisoner require hospitalization, the plan is to secure a court order and transfer him to a local hospital in charge of a deputy.

The rooms on the third floor of the court house in front of the women's jail continue to be used for the temporary detention of juveniles. As noted in former reports, if these rooms are a part of the jail their use for juveniles would be illegal. No other place is provided for this class and the last annual report of the sheriff shows that six juveniles were committed to his care. It would seem that if it is necessary to use these rooms for this purpose, they should be in charge of the children's court or authorized agency and children should not be committed to the custody of the sheriff. The procedure outlined in the Children's Court Act should be followed. It is obviously the intent of that law that children should not be turned over to the sheriff or confined in any jail or lock-up.

Selection of Trustees
It has been the practice here for a number of years to permit several trusty sentenced prisoners, who work in the basement, to remain there over night. They are locked in daytimes and said to be under supervision more or less both day and night. The selection of trustees should be taken very seriously by the officials in charge and adequate supervision is essential.

At the time of the reorganization of the jail staff and general management of the institution, following the serious trouble which occurred about two years ago, the present under-sheriff was placed in command. It seems fitting that a word of commendation should be here offered for the type of service he has rendered in bringing about a high standard of efficiency in the conduct of this jail.

In order to make the jail more adequate and bring it up to date, the following is necessary:

1. Extend the upper tier floors to the outer walls, install cells or rooms in the vacant space; substitute modern toilet fixtures for the present obsolete ones; and install steel seats and tables riveted to the cell walls.
2. Install visiting booths, receiving room, sterilizer and clothes room.
3. Exclude all classes of inmates that do not belong in the custody of the sheriff, such as lodgers, police prisoners and children.

The first proposition should be presented to the board of supervisors.

to be worked out gradually as financial conditions will permit. The school and third suggestions would involve any large expenditure on the part of the county and are recommended for immediate consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
CLIFFORD M. YOUNG,
Chief Inspector.

Bronchial Irritations Need Creosote

For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis, knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on. Creosolium with creosote and six other highly important medicinal elements, quickly and effectively stops coughs and colds that otherwise might lead to serious trouble.

Creosolium is powerful in the treatment of colds and coughs, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take.

Your own druggist guarantees Creosolium by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creosolium as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on. Always keep Creosolium on hand for instant use.—Ad.

Reign of Terror in France
This period of bloodshed, anarchy and confusion during the French revolution began after the fall of the Girondins, May 31, 1793, and ended with the overthrow of Robespierre and his accomplices, July 27, 1794. In this time, thousands were put to death.

Wet's Heat Soap Plant
The Wet's heat, the main ingredient for a popular soap, is not made by a bird. It is a growing plant the top of which resembles a bird's nest—somewhat like the wild carrot blossoms. A delicious bread comes from Sarawak, British East India.

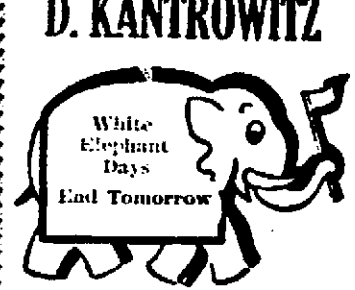

Do YOU Know—

That in the early days in the American colonies—especially in New England—profanity was punished by pinching the offender's tongue in a split stick. Drunkards were also made to wear a red letter D suspended about their necks.

FINAL CLEARANCE

FURS

Our patrons know that when we make a statement concerning a fur, we know our subject. They know the "Leventhal's" label is an unfailing guarantee of dependable quality, superior value, and fair dealing. They may be assured that these furs are of our usual standard in quality and fashion—in value they actually surpass it. We know that furs of every type will be much higher next season due to a rising market. Therefore, we urge the importance of choosing now.

Gas Blows Manhole Cover Off of Sewer

An accumulation of gas, said to be due to the cold weather, blew the manhole cover off of the sewer on Broadway near Albany avenue this afternoon about 2 o'clock, forcing it into the air for about 100 feet and cracking it into several pieces. Residents in the vicinity reported the incident to the board of public works and a force of men was sent to investigate the happening, accompanied by Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy. They found no severe damage and blamed the explosion on sewer gas.

Price of Cherries, Peas. The price of Royal Anne Cherries and Peas in 2 1/2 lb. cans, advertised by the Ulster County Retail Provision Dealers Association, in The Freeman Thursday, should have been 19 cents each instead of that quoted.

Algiers in Two Parts. Algiers, the capital of the French Province of Algeria, was from the Fourteenth century to the Nineteenth the headquarters of the Barbary pirates, who were the terror of the seas until 1800. They exacted toll from ships of all nations, not only cargo and gold, but human beings. These pirates are credited with having captured 8,000 ships and 600,000 Christians. The city is composed of two parts—French Algiers, as gay and modern as Paris itself, and the contrasting Arab quarter with its tall, windowless houses and narrow, congested streets.

KNITTED CHECK

By CHARLES SCHMIDT

The interesting thing about the modernized knitted frock is that it looks as if tailored of yardage goods. The latest call in the realm of about town and sports clothes is for knitted checks. Here you see how smartly a brown and white knitted weave qualifies when made up in the very voguish shirtwaist-frock styling. It is belted with green leather. The scarf is of a two-toned green knitted fabric. The hat is of brown suede. This costume is admirable for general wear or traveling.

The Longest Word. The word which is usually said to hold the distinction of being the longest is "antidisestablishmentarianism." It has 28 letters. It is a nonce word, dating to the time in the last century when the disestablishment of the Irish church was a question of British politics.

Wasn't that the best salad Edith gave us yesterday!

It surely was and she gives all the credit to Ivanhoe Mayonnaise.

And here's how Edith made the salad that made her party such a success: 1/2 cup Ivanhoe Mayonnaise, 1 1/4 cups salmon, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 1/4 cups cucumber, sliced, salted and drained, 1 tablespoon vinegar. To mayonnaise add other ingredients in order given. Serves 6.

FREEMAN WANT ADS BRING RESULTS!

PROTECT YOURSELF From "BOOTLEG" MERCHANDISE!

*The Ads in the Freeman
Safeguard Your Buying*

INFERIOR "depression" merchandise is still flooding the country on the look-out for "suckers" who will buy. These goods are below a wholesome standard of quality—not worth the money or anywhere near it! Whether you order a quart of ice cream for Junior's birthday party or a brace of shirts for friend husband you cannot afford to take chances with this sub-standard merchandise.

How can you avoid being bilked on inferior goods—endangered by foodstuffs prepared in unsanitary surroundings—cheated on commodities made by children or sweated labor? There are two safe ways!

First, patronize reputable merchants. Certainly, avoid buying from the door-to-door peddler you know nothing about!

Second, read and shop regularly through the ads in The Freeman. Dealers who sell goods of sound quality do not hesitate to advertise them in the newspaper where you can read, study and compare their qualifications and prices. An advertiser who must spend money to tell you about his goods seldom endangers his investment by falsehoods and misrepresentation. A consistent advertiser whose business reputation depends on your continued good will never does!

Freeman Ads Protect Your Pocketbook

When you read The Freeman ads you can compare any merchant's offering for quality, description and price with others in the paper. You're protecting yourself against POOR quality and unreasonable charges. The reputable advertising merchant knows this. He welcomes your comparison. He knows it will build up your sense of discrimination, teach you to appreciate his own worthwhile goods and save you from making future mistakes.

Freeman Ads Safeguard Your Time

You'll have more time for leisure if you let The Freeman ads plan each shopping trip for you. Before you leave home you'll know just which stores you're going to visit and what you're going to buy. No time wasted in walking around town comparing items and prices in a dozen different stores. You've done all that BEFOREHAND—in the pages of The Freeman! Shopping through the ads gives you extra hours for doing the things you LIKE to do!

Freeman Ads Assure Lasting Satisfaction

When you've made it a habit to buy from reputable merchants you know about—from advertisers who aren't afraid to let you compare their offerings side by side with others—THEN you'll find yourself getting longer life, more wear, and a fuller, lasting satisfaction from all your purchases. You'll know just where to find quality. You'll be a discriminating buyer. If all women bought as carefully, the makers of inferior "sucker-bait" goods would have to quit business.

And the NRA Does Its Part

When you shop the ads remember to look for the familiar little symbol that provides the best protection of all! Goods advertised "NRA" mean that no little children drudged weary hours in their making—no tired men and women slaved in a sweat-shop for a pitiful wage. "NRA" ensures you that your purchase is made and sold by well-paid men and women who like their jobs well enough to bring you a carefully made, quality product!

SPORT SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

(Associated Press Sports Editor)

The four race stars of this year, above and below, are, in the one that brings them to the present, the three American runners, Princeton, Glen, and Kansas and three European runners.

All three have never been in the New York Athletic Club, in the middle of February. They will all be so busy watching each other that they won't have time to make records. It is even possible that some fast-topping dark horse, such as Joe Morgan or Glen Dawson, will take advantage of this concentrated rivalry to move out in front. The point is that more potential stars will be turned loose on the scene than we have seen since the Normal race out here the summer of 1922.

No Guarantee of Record

On the other hand, Lawson Robertson, Pennsylvania track coach, doubts if there would be any guarantee of a new mile record even if Luigi Beccali of Italy, James Lindemog, of France, Jack Lawford, of England and Cunningham, Ponton and Venke all were started in the same race.

"With such a galaxy of runners of posing each other, the tendency would be to slow down the race because each would be watching the other," he explains. "There would be considerable jostling for place at the start and a bit of shoving and pushing on the turns. A two or three man race would result in a better performance."

The ideal time for a record breaking performance is the summer, Robertson believes. Tracks are in better condition, the wind resistance is less than in the spring and the athlete should be in better physical condition.

Indoor running is more conducive to fast racing because the temperature of the building is usually even, the tracks are firmer and have more spring to them than the cinder paths outdoors.

Steady Pace Best

"Nurm's mechanical system of running in which he kept a steady pace from the start of a race to its finish proved that records could be broken without the fifts jerks and spurts that seemed to be a part of this country's athletes running a mile race," says Robertson.

"Milers used to run a speedy first quarter, slow down a bit for the second 440, read a newspaper during the third quarter and then spurt with all they had left in the last quarter. There was little idea of pace, with the result that steadiness was entirely lacking."

"Today the best of the milers maintain a steady pace from the start of a race to the tape. The result is better times and much more interesting races. Present day runners have learned the technique of pace. They know how to distribute pace through four quarters of a mile race."

Robertson believes Cunningham has the best physical makeup of any of the present day milers and that if a 4.06 mile is ever run, he will be the one to run it.

"Cunningham is mature, has the speed and the strength to turn in a record breaking mile," is Robertson's belief.

Osburn Is Entered In Albany Games

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—Harold M. Osburn, former Olympic decathlon champion and now a student at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy, will compete in the second annual Albany Mercury Club relay games tomorrow night at the 10th Infantry armory.

Osburn, who broke the world's record high jump with a leap of six feet, eight and a quarter inches at Champaign, Ill., in 1924, still is an amateur and has been a frequent entrant in indoor meets recently.

He is reported in the condition, clearing the bar at six feet, four or five inches regularly, and from all appearances is ready to give his younger rivals, Spitz and Martin, another fight for national supremacy in the high jump.

Stere Sumachowski, Schoenetsky school boy cross country champion, is entered for the 1,500 meter run.

Relay teams of the Millrose A. A. and Prudential A. A. of Newark also are entered.

CENTER INTERMEDIATES

CRUSH THE STARS, 34-18

At the Downtown Jewish Center last night the Center Intermediates broke out of a recent slump by crushing the Center Stars, a team composed mainly of Hebrew American players. The Intermediates took the lead at the outset of the contest and were leading 17-0 at the half. Good shooting by Spiegel and Present allowed the Intermediates to score the same number of points in the second half, the game ending with the Intermediates in the front, 34-18.

More Aggressive Spirit Needed Say Club Bosses

By ALAN GOULD

(Associated Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 9 (AP)—Major league baseball is due for some brisk, if not actually warlike action on the diamonds this year, providing the athletes carry out on the field with them the conviction of their bosses, the club owners, that the game needs more aggressive playing spirit and less fraternizing to attract increased public interest.

No special call to arms has been or will be sounded, but it is a fact that the magnates of the National League have endorsed the initiative already taken by their chief executive, John A. Heydler, in promoting more inter-club rivalry and that the American League owners are of similar mind. Heydler voiced a warning against too much fraternizing at the outset of the 1933 season.

No Comradship

Short of rowdism and actual hand-to-hand conflict, players will be urged to adopt the attitude that no favors are to be asked or comradship manifested, on or off the playing field. Emphases, while not having their disciplinary powers restricted in any way, will be instructed to turn their backs upon outbursts of high dudgeon.

Specifically, here are some of the things which club owners classify under the head of objectionable:

1. Fraternizing between rival players around the batting cage during pre-game practice.

2. Visits of players to the opposing team's bench for purposes of discussing engagements for the evening.

ning, inquiring about the health of each other's family or debating the merits of their golf games.

3. Manifestations of "old pal" sentiment between base runners and infielders.

Boon Times Blamed

The air and object is to revive some "old time spirit" in the sport, which, in the opinion of many observers, yielded too much to the softening influences of high salaries and social activities during the boom times.

Recently John Joseph McGraw deplored the lack of aggressive spirit among the players, although frankly admitting also that his successor in charge of the Giants, Bill Terry, did pretty well last year without engaging in pretty many arguments. The current Giants differ from the old school in that they are more peppy than belligerent.

Too Much Discipline

This brings up the concurrent problem: Where are the so-called "fighting types" players of the highly aggressive stamp of Dick Bartell of the Phillies to be found?

For the last ten years at least, as old timers point out, the heavy hand of discipline has discouraged the players from becoming overheated.

Fines and suspensions have curbed tendencies to demonstrate scrappiness on the field. Fear of inciting the minds of managers and magnates alike. Consequently it remains to be seen just how far a change in policy will prove effective, without developing complications.

COLGATE ATHLETES ARE ACADEMIC RIVALS

Hamilton, N. Y., Feb. 9 (AP)—Bill Davidson, Colgate sophomore who came up from Tulsa, Okla., to play guard on the Red Raider football team, is said to be a scholastic star on his studies and throw them all for a loop.

Bill had four "A's" and a "B" the first semester, while Fortman had five "A's."

Davidson, also light heavyweight wrestling champion of the university, leaves that during the next four months he will get a strangle hold on his studies and throw them all for a loop.

Yankees Send Contracts to 29

New York, Feb. 9 (AP)—Perhaps there was no particular reason for the delay but the New York Yankees have just gotten around to sending out contracts.

With Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Russell Van Atta the only players signed to date, the club dispatched contracts to 29 performers yesterday, the latest they ever have mailed. Many of them, without much doubt, contained substantial raises in the salaries the Yankees paid a year ago.

Baseball men pointed out the delay in mailing them gave the players only a little more than three weeks to argue about terms. Spring training at St. Petersburg begins March 4.

Luckies Hope To Wallop Napanoch At the White Eagle

Encouraged by victories over the powerful Liberty Emeralds and Rhinebeck, Jack Troy's Luckies hope to shuck the highly touted Napanoch Guards tonight at White Eagle Hall, Delaware avenue, which is expected to be jammed with fans as never before.

Starting time of the game is 9 o'clock and in it the following players will be used:

Napanoch—Bob Cullum, "Woody" Wood, Vince Knoll, "Bun" Chilson, Wiedlitz and McDowell.

Luckies—"Chipe" Rhymmer, "Bing" Van Etten, Pete Schine, Dan Joyce, Don Kelly and Herb Van Deusen.

There will be two prelims, the League of Nations vs. White Eagles at 8 and Holy Cross Girls vs. Rosendale at 7. Concluding the evening's program will be a dance with music by Andy's orchestra.

Levinisky Choice Over Massera, 3-1

New York, Feb. 9 (AP)—Seeking to build King Levinisky into the status of a front-rank heavyweight contender, Madison Square Garden feeds Charley Massera, Pittsburgh youngster, to the loud-voiced, rough and tumble Chicagoan-tonight.

If the King gets past Massera—and the betting was 3 to 1 he would—he will face Walter Neusel, German heavyweight, in a few weeks, and perhaps battle Primo Carnera for the title in June. That assumes Carnera beats Tommy Loughran at Miami February 22.

Po'keepsie Brewers Will Play Rosendale

Opponents of the Rosendale Firemen in their regular Saturday night game at home tomorrow will be the Po'keepsie Brewers, who hold a decision over Pete Bruck's All Stars, bitter rivals of the hose handlers.

The Brewers will use Silvernall, Green, McAnier, Murphy and Hall in their lineup.

On the roster of Rosendale are Reider, Niles, Krom, Merritt, Rank, Dallas and Kops.

There will be the usual preliminary and dancing.

Kingston High to Play Middletown Varsity Here Saturday Night

Kiassmen Are Favorites as Fight For DUSO Crown Continues—Preliminary Game—Other DUSO Battles on Schedule.

Saturday evening in Kingston High School gym, the basketball varsity of Kingston High will meet the varsity of Middletown High, in a game that will either put Kingston one step nearer the DUSO crown or put her among the ranks of the defeated.

Kingston Favored

The locals, however, it is expected, will undoubtedly move one step nearer the DUSO crown than join the ranks of the defeated, since Kingston tops the league, while Middletown is only one game above the cellar position. In Kingston High's last game with Liberty on Liberty's own court, the Kiassmen trounced the mountain men 34-15, while several weeks ago, Middletown defeated Liberty 17-16 for her only DUSO win this year. Then too, the locals have the advantage of playing on their own court, and unless the Hughesmen of Middletown do the improbable and uncork a surprise, the Kiassmen should win by a comfortable margin.

Probable Lineup

Although Coach Kias of the locals has not announced his starting quintet, he will undoubtedly start his regular five of Don Moore and Captain Johnny Zeeh in the forward berths, Bob Every at Center, and Andy Dykes and Tony Debrosky at the guard positions.

Jayve Preliminary

As a preliminary to the main tilt, the Jayvees, who recently easily defeated the Comforter Missions, will meet the Sioux Fire of Port Jervis, which team also holds a win over the Missions. The starting time of the preliminary is 7:30 o'clock, with the main tilt getting under way at 8:30.

Dancing will follow the games. This game was originally scheduled for Friday, but because of the senior play in the auditorium, the game was postponed one night.

Havana Third Capital

Havana is the third city to serve as the capital of Cuba. Baracoa, on the northern coast of the island, near its easternmost tip, was the first capital, established by Diego de Velazquez in 1512. Two years later, Velazquez transferred the headquarters to Santiago, which remained the second capital until 1561. Meanwhile, the original Havana was founded in 1514, near the site of what is now known as the town of Batabano, on the south coast and about 50 miles from Havana. This infant city bore the lengthy title of "San Cristobal de la Habana."

Flashes of Life
Sketched in Brief

By The Associated Press.

Grandmother Gets It

Philadelphia. Dear old grandmother gets the fatal axe. Dr. Gerry Cleveland Myers, pathologist and child training expert from Cleveland, O., describing the silver-haired lady as the worst mischief maker in bringing up children. He said "young married couples would do better to go on public relief than to remain under the thumb of a grandmother."

Shop Early.

Philadelphia. Jewelers have served notice that wedding rings are going to cost half as much again as soon as the present supply is exhausted. They put the blame on Uncle Sam, who raised the price of gold.

Ah Me, What Next?

Chicago. Jumbo. Study shows that in a garden of Eden drapes would be unthinkable.

She therefore proposes to represent Eve at the Jungle Ball of Chicago artists, in the manner in which Eve is supposed to have appeared.

More conservative of the artists are arguing that the police have to be considered, and the matter remains to be settled one way or the other.

Just For a Day.

Lincoln, Neb.—Nebraska will have a 15-year-old governor today—Edward Strauss of Omaha. He will sit in the gubernatorial chair, and 23 other Nebraska Boy Scouts will occupy other state offices as part of Government Day in the 24th anniversary week of scouting. Strauss was the guest of Governor Bryan at the executive mansion last night.

Starting Early

Portland, Ore.—Something new in Oregon political strategy—a gubernatorial candidate for the 1946 Democratic primaries.

"Why 1946? Due to state laws no person under 34 may hold this executive position," Thomas L. Taylor, 22, of Portland, explains on election cards. The cards also list his headquarters and campaign chairman.

Age No Bar to Romance

Seattle—It's nearly 70 years since the Civil War—but a Lincoln's Birthday marriage, in a sense, will climax a Civil War romance.

Daniel A. Reams, 87, and Mrs. Josephine Brasfield, 83, will be married, after an acquaintance growing out of their joint membership in the G. A. R. They met seven years ago. Mrs. Brasfield has one son and Reams a son and a daughter.

Fatal Tattle

Pittsburgh—One of the children "told on" Conrad Zozato, 14—told his mother he'd been smoking on the way from school, and when the boy arrived home his mother greeted him with the scolding words: "Wasn't your father gets home?"

That is a fair-sized shock to get a boy of 14. Conrad stayed so long that Mrs. Zozato sent another son to look for him.

The younger found Conrad hanging himself in the shed.

"Lose Up in Sin—My Picture"

Philadelphia. Mae West probably never heard of the Vincent Slikers, but Mrs. Slikers blames the screen star for her marital difficulties.

Even while their baby was ill, Mrs. Slikers, she had to give her husband a dollar so he could go to the movies and see Mae West. The movie ordered Slikers to pay $2.50 a week for the child's support. The baby's parents are both 19.

Maybe So.

Chicago. It's barely possible that the men who got into Max Erelson's pants store were always complaining that their pants were out before their coats and vests.

At any rate they helped themselves to 2,000 pairs.

The Silvery Years

By ANNE CAMPBELL

NOW we have come to the silvery years.

Silver with vanished hopes, silver with tears.

Silver with promises of silver dawn.

When Death's silver cheques take Life's silver pawns.

Now we have come to the silvery years.

Silver my treasures, and silver appears.

Stealing the brown of your own pretty hair.

The silver of winter is shimmering there.

Now we have come to the silvery years.

The journey is ending, the shadowed path clears.

And over the top of the silvery hill

The bright silver moon of our love rises still!
